ZERO-TOLERANCE POLICY for ALCOHOL USE in YMCA ADVENTURE

ALCOHOL BAN AND PENALTIES

Because of the demand for good campgrounds, the YMCA often reserves space and signs contracts for camps up to a year in advance. The majority of these camps does not allow alcohol on their premises and can exclude an entire YMCA if the ban is violated. To prevent one or more individuals from causing the YMCA to lose privileges for future campouts, a STRICT ALCOHOL BAN is mandated at all campouts and program events. The ban policy refers to the possession and/or consumption of all alcoholic beverages, on or off camp or event premises, while Y programs are in operation.

THE PENALTIES FOR ALCOHOL BAN VIOLATIONS will include any or all of the following:

1. Immediate removal of all alcoholic beverages.
2. Exclusion from future campouts and/or events for the violator and his or her child (ren).
3. Exclusion from future campouts and/or events for the entire tribe of the violator.
4. Expulsion from the Adventure Guide Program for the violator and his or her child (children).
5. Expulsion from the Adventure Guide Program for the entire tribe of the violator.

Help preserve the enjoyment for you, your child and everyone else: OBEY THE ALCOHOL BAN!
